Cash ISA Accounts

Individual Savings Accounts ('ISAs') allow UK tax residents aged 16 or over to receive interest on their savings free of tax. You must tell us if you are no longer a UK resident (your agreement to do so is set out in detail in the application form). You can make no further subscriptions after you have ceased to qualify. If you are unsure as to whether you are eligible for an ISA, you should consult Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs ("HMRC"). Kingdom Bank operates a number of cash individual savings accounts ("Cash ISAs") (the details of which are below). Cash ISAs are managed in accordance with the Individual Savings Accounts Regulations 1998 ("ISA Regulations") (as amended from time to time). You can subscribe to only one Cash ISA in a tax year. If you do not make a subscription in a tax year you must re-activate your Cash ISA in order to subscribe in any subsequent year. Cash ISA Accounts are only available to individuals. You may not subscribe more than the annual limit allowed under the ISA Regulations for any tax year (the current limits are set out on our website). Cash ISA Accounts will be, and must remain, your property and you must own the cash deposited in a Cash ISA (you cannot deposit money belonging to anyone else or held on behalf of anyone else).

You must not allow the Cash ISA Account to be used as security for a loan or transfer any rights in the cash or the Account to any other person.

No charges or penalties (except those referred to below relating to where we permit early withdrawal in our discretion and any charges on transfer before maturity or notice period served) apply to these accounts and they can only be opened in single names. Joint Account holders are not permitted. No Cash ISA can be opened until a correctly completed, signed and dated application form is received together with our other standard Account opening forms and completion of all preliminary identification and other checks to our satisfaction.

We are satisfied that anyone to whom we delegate any functions or responsibilities is competent to carry out those functions and responsibilities. We will notify you if, by reason of any failure to satisfy the provisions of the ISA regulations, we become aware that your ISA is or will become no longer exempt from tax.
